GOD LOVES THE IRISH

Humphrey J. Desmond, LL. D.

With a Foreword by JOSEPH I. C. CLARKE, President-General of the American-Irish Historical Society, and a delightful Appreciation by DR. MAURICE FRANCIS EGAN, our Minister to Denmark.

If Irish, it will make you a better American. If not Irish you'll wish you had at least one Celtic-corpuscle that you, too, might flaunt it as a silkless emerald-the rarest of precious

A CRUSADER OF FRANCE

By PATRICK MACGILL Vivid, real, powerful in bringing, not simply the war to you, but you to the war. There is not a superfluous word in it; it is stripped for action, keen, alive, tense, more like a human being than a book, an incarnation of the war. Every line of the picture bites. You will not forget it. If you want to stay outside the war, do not read
